OUR ROADS AND RAILS

An Area Development magazine survey of site location consultants placed New Jersey third for highway and rail accessibility on the 2012 Top States for Doing Business rankings. Major interstates include I-76, I-78, I-80 and I-95, while rail freight lines are via CSX Transportation, Norfolk Southern and Canadian Pacific.

OUR PORTS

The Port of New York and New Jersey, with much of the activity centered in Newark, Elizabeth and Jersey City, is the busiest maritime center on the East Coast. The South Jersey Port Corporation operates the Port of Camden on the Delaware River, offering access to the Atlantic Ocean and specializing in break-bulk and container cargo, such as wood, steel and cocoa beans.

OUR AIRPORTS

Newark Liberty International Airport (EWR), the 14th busiest in the U.S. and 22nd busiest airport in the world in 2011, serves almost 34 million passengers and 40 commercial airlines and handles 800,000 tons of air cargo and 85,000 tons of air mail annually. Atlantic City International Airport (ACY), operated by the South Jersey Transportation Authority, served 1.5 million domestic and international passengers in 2011. ACY recently completed a $25.1 million, 75,000 square foot expansion.
